“Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.” (Isaiah 40:1,3,5)

We are living in a time of much sorrow and despair. People are hurting as we hear the daily reports of hurricanes, flooding, wildfires etc. These have taken the lives of many and have left a vast amount without homes. “What is there to hope in? I’ve lost everything!” These are some of the things you hear, but God’s Word always brings hope.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord (Luke 2:10-11).

As we get into our busy Christmas activities, let us remember the hurting ones and reach out to them through our prayers. And may the comfort of God’s Word point them to the light which is Jesus Christ--a light to lighten the Gentiles (Luke 2:32a).

HAVE A BLESSED AND JOYFUL CHRISTMAS!
